

Life Education

The Life Education Curriculum in our school includes moral education, civic and national education, health education, life-planning education, environmental education and leisure education. Part of the content also addresses the School's Major Concerns. Apart from classroom learning, there are workshops, talks, services and visits.

A talk conducted by veteran broadcaster, Mr Mak Yun Sau

A talk on 'organ donation': Speakers included an organ receiver