History Curriculum Guidelines (2016-17)

The aims of this curriculum are to enable students to:

- (a) discover where they stand in the contemporary world through understanding the origins and development of modern events;
- (b) develop the skills of critical thinking, making sound judgments and effective communication through exploring historical issues;
- (c) approach past and current events in an impartial and empathetic manner, using a variety of perspectives;
- (d) understand the characteristics and values of their own culture, and appreciate the shared humanity and common problems of the world's many peoples;
- (e) cultivate both national consciousness and the consciousness of being citizens of the global community, and thus become rational and sensible members of the local community, the nation and the world; and
- (f) be prepared to explore in greater depth an issue of personal interest, or one that may be of relevance to their future careers and professional studies.
