

Astronomy Activity – Observing Sunspots

Senior form HCYers studying Biology participated in an astronomy activity at Ho Koon Nature Education cum Astronomical Centre on 6 October 2022. Under the guidance of an instructor, students brought the sunspot closer to themselves by operating astronomical telescopes. They have also learnt how to use a solar viewer to observe the Sun. The activity raised students' interest in astronomical studies.

