

F.4 Geography Field Trip – Sustainable Urban Planning

F.4 Geography students participated in a field trip course at Ho Koon Nature Education cum Astronomical Centre on 5 October 2022. The course allows students to identify the factors affecting the urban microclimate, the relationship between the geographical environment, land use, and urban weather of the field site, and discuss how to incorporate climatic conditions in sustainable urban planning.

