

National Security Youth Ambassador Training Scheme

The National Security Youth Ambassador Training Scheme was organized by the Joint Committee for the Promotion of The Basic Law of Hong Kong and sponsored by the Home and Youth Affairs Bureau and the Community Participation Scheme of the Committee on the Promotion of Civic Education, and was held from February to April 2023. Through seminars, workshops, leadership training camps, National Security Promotion Day and other activities, the scheme aims to promote the Constitution, the Basic Law and the Hong Kong National Security Law to students, so as to arouse their interest in learning and deepen their understanding of relevant laws.

3B So Ho Yin, Daniel participated in the National Security Youth Ambassador Training Scheme and was awarded with a certificate of commendation for his positive and outstanding performance during the event.